Iran's chief negotiator says Washington has a "zero-zero" chance to salvage the 2015 nuclear deal, unless Tehran sees concrete measures in return for its goodwill. The Trump administration has rejected the 2015 deal as "disastrous" and a "disgrace," but the return of major sanctions has so far only seen Tehran reduce its commitment to the accord. The Iranian official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, told reporters at the UN Security Council on Tuesday that Washington had dropped the only language it was able to bridge with Iran, leaving "a zero-zero" chance of saving the nuclear accord. He went on to say that Iran expects new commitments in return for its commitment to continue the agreement.CMX Inc and Native Instruments Announce Collaboration Oct 10, 2018 Native Instruments, the global leader in creative software, announced today a collaboration with CMX Inc, the company dedicated to bringing the music creation capabilities of hardware synthesizers to the softwarebased world. The relationship with Native Instruments involves the distribution of CMX Music Grid. This morning, CMX and Native Instruments are announcing a major collaboration to further enhance CMX Music Grid. Artists, music schools and music producers can now connect to Native Instruments' Pro Tools and Logic software, as well as their Live 9 and Ableton Live 8 software. In addition, CMX Music Grid updates will enable to use Native Instruments' software for tracking, mixing and mastering. The CMX Music Grid's fully featured sequencer provides a robust native GUI for the tools and features customers expect in a software-based synthesizer.
