The characters' lives are thrown into turmoil by a worldwide power struggle between the United Nations and the evil Goa'uld, who seek to take control of the Stargates. However, the U.N. - and its allies - are not the only ones with a secret agenda: The Goa'uld ruler Set, along with most of the Goa'uld race, are being held in stasis, pre-programmed to awaken millions of years in the future. Earth is suddenly thrust into a conflict of cosmic proportions as the U.N. joins forces with the Goa'uld. In a race against time, the Earth team must defend the gates against the Goa'uld's most powerful warrior, then attempt to recover the Stargate and teleport the Goa'uld to a remote planet. In 2008, the Stargate franchise returned with the new series Stargate Universe. The show attempted to maintain the familiar look of the '90s original, while attempting to reinvent the series with a darker, more character-driven aesthetic. Most of the cast, like Michael Shanks, that were part of the original '90sStargate series returned for this new show, which was set in a new universe and set on an alien craft called the Destiny. But the series was brought to a close in the season finale, in which the ship was attacked by Ori, an enemy force from the far reaches of the universe. Stargate is one of the most successful television series of all time. The series follows an exploration team who travel the galaxy to various other planets using Ancient technology. The series has been successful to date with a total of 6 seasons and 54 episodes airing. The DVDs are distributed by Visual Entertainment Group (VEG). 5ec8ef588b
